

Linda I. Inglis
Curriculum Vitae
linda@connect2learning.com
2023

PERSONAL SKILLS

Relationship/Community Builder – High energy, collaborative and committed team member, positive outlook, creator of opportunities, a learner

Communicator – Strong interpersonal and communication skills, confident and capable facilitating/leading small and large groups, problem solver, collegial coach

EDUCATION

Master of Education – University of Alberta 1994

Bachelor of Education with Distinction – University of Alberta 1975

EXPERIENCE

Leadership and Teaching

2021 – present	Connect2Learning Associate
2013-2022	Instructional Leadership Coach - Westwind School Division
2013-2015	Alberta Assessment Consortium – Project Lead - Instructional Leadership in Assessment Project
2005-2013	Principal George H. Luck
1998-2005	Principal Velma E. Baker
1993-1998	Principal Brander Gardens
1988-1991	Principal Grovenor
1987-1988	Sessional Instructor Grant MacEwan College
1986-1987	Supervisor Consulting Services EPSB
1982-1986	Consultant EPSB Learning Disabilities/Programming for Student Difference/Resource Room Project
1981-1985	Teacher Norwood School
1978-1981	Teacher Hardisty Junior High
1975-1978	Teacher Avonmore School (Special Needs Students)

INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Singapore – Host - Assessment for Learning Study Tour for Lead Teachers ,October 2014

Norway – Host - Educational Study Tour for Teachers/Administrators from Stavenger, Norway, October 2011 and October 2012

ASCD - Instructional Talk Throughs - Orlando, Anaheim, San Antonio, San Francisco

NSCD – Instructional Talk Throughs - Dallas, Washington, Nashville

PUBLICATIONS

“Instructional Talk Throughs” Powerful Assessment and Professional Practice
Co-author, Connect 2 Learning, 2021

CASS Connection Fall 2013 - Using Assessment in the Service of Community Learning – p. 28 contributing author

Walking the Talk – Instructional Talk Throughs. ATA volume 43, #3 2008-2009

CONTRIBUTIONS/SERVICE TO STUDENT LEARNING AND TEACHING

Instructional Talk Throughs – Embedded Professional Learning – partner in initiating and sustaining project – 9 years

PALs (Principals in Assessment for Learning) initiated and developed project for school leaders – 4 years

Assessment Share Fair – collaborated on creating and sustaining sharing of quality assessment for learning practices – district wide 5 years

Using Assessment to Enhance Student Learning and Success Project Leadership Team – EPSB

AISI District Team Leader

Superintendent Council Member

Quantum Leap Assessment for Learning Project Coordinator

School Coordinator Teaching Practicum

Presenter Summer Leadership Institutes

Building and Sustaining Professional Learning Communities – ATA

United Way – Power of Five District Lead

President International Reading Association

PRESENTER

LEA – Instructional Leadership - Assessment for Learning The Process and The Content –

Alberta Assessment Consortium – Connecting Conversations – Assessment for Learning

AISI LEADING AND LEARNING – “Share Fair” Teachers Sharing Assessment for Learning Strategies

GETCA – School Wide Assessment for Learning – Students, Parents, Staff Learning Together

RECOGNITION

Today’s Parent – Top School “Community Commitment – Outreach” Sept. 2009

ASCD Innovative Practices – “Professional Learning Conversations – Assessment For Learning

“All of Living and All of Learning, Takes Place Only within Relationships” L.I.